DECLARATION

The competitor and the crew members acknowledge and accept the following statements, both individually and as a group, for themselves and all the people who work for them during Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti.

The competitor and the drivers declare:

- a) to be aware of the International Sporting Code, the National Sporting Regulations (and its additional rules) and the event's specific rules. They also agree to accept them unconditionally and align to its provisions.
- b) to be in possession of the necessary competence to take part in the event's trials. They also declare that the car registered is in the best shape possible in order to participate in the event.
- c) to fully respect the rules of Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti. Its trials are conducted in compliance with the International Sporting Code, the technical and sport rules of FIA, ACI Sport and the event's specific rules.
- d) to be aware that the tracking system is able to improve security but it is not guaranteed for the whole course.
- e) to acknowledge that motor sports are dangerous. This aspect is automatically accepted by the participant's registration. The drivers and the competitor absolve from any responsibility FIA, ACI, ACI Sport and Automobile Club Belluno (race officials, associates, solicitors and assistants included) in case of death, physical damage, loss or any other damage that may occur during Coppa d'Oro delle Dolomiti.

The competitor and drivers are also aware that the personal data included in this registration form will be used for the event's purposes. The organizers are authorized by the Italian law n. 675/96 to use the mentioned data.
